

J H GRAY LECTURES 2022

Professor Carlos Noreña, UC Berkeley

ECOLOGY AND ORDER IN THE ROMAN AND HAN EMPIRES

Lecture: Geographies of Power
5pm 17th May, G.19

Seminar: The Calibration of Interests
2pm 18th May, G.21

Lecture: Acculturation and Authority
5pm 19th May, G.19

The J H Gray Lectures will take place at the Faculty of Classics.

All welcome. Talks to be livestreamed.

Carlos Noreña is Associate Professor of Ancient History and Mediterranean Archaeology at UC Berkeley. His research focuses on the ancient Roman world, particularly political and cultural history c. 200 BCE–300 CE; the historical geography of the Roman empire, especially in the Roman West; and comparative ancient empires.